

As part of their Chapter 11 process

LATAM extends voting period for its Reorganization Plan for local bondholders before the US Court

Santiago (Chile), April 20, 2022 - LATAM Airlines Group S.A. ("LATAM") (SSE: LTM) and its subsidiaries in Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, and the United States notified the United States Court that they extended the deadline for the process of requesting votes (Solicitation Period) of their Reorganization Plan for the bonds issued in Chile and registered in the Securities Registry (nos. 862 and 921 for the years 2017 and 2018, respectively), until May 6, 2022. This modification responds to the internal processes and voting times required by the local bondholders. Except for the aforementioned extension, the deadline of May 2, 2022, established by the Court for the process of requesting votes remains in force.

It should be noted that last March, LATAM obtained confirmation of its Disclosure Statement by the Court in the United States. In the resolution of rigor, it was established that the information provided by LATAM to the process was sufficient to start voting on the Plan presented to the Court on Nov. 26, 2021.
