

LATAM Group continues to improve its connectivity, reaching 143 destinations in May

- The group will reinforce connectivity from the hub in Peru with flights to Iguazú (Brazil) and Salta (Argentina).
- LATAM Cargo received an important award for Innovation in Air Cargo for its plastic reduction projects in its operations.
- In April 2023, passenger traffic (measured in revenue passenger-kilometers - RPK) increased by 26.2% compared to the same period in 2022, and operations measured in ASK (available seat-kilometers) grew by 29.6%

May 11, 2023 - LATAM Group reported updates on its operations for the coming weeks, highlighting the 143 destinations to be operated in the month, which, compared to May 2022, results in an increase of 7%. Other relevant news of the month are the announcements on the following routes:

- Lima - Iguazú, operated by LATAM Airlines Peru, with three flights a week from November 1.
- Lima - Salta, operated by LATAM Airlines Peru, with three flights a week from December 2.
- Fortaleza - Miami, operated by LATAM Airlines Brazil, will have two weekly flights starting July 28.
- Santiago (Chile) - Los Ángeles, operated by LATAM Airlines Group, will have five weekly flights starting October 2.

At the same time, LATAM Cargo was distinguished by the International Air Transport Association (IATA) with the Air Cargo Innovation Award in the corporate category for its plastic reduction projects in its cargo operations in Chile and Brazil. These initiatives were designed by employees and are part of the group's commitment to having zero waste to landfills by 2027.

Operational statistics for April 2023

In April 2023, passenger traffic (measured in revenue passenger-kilometers - RPK) increased by 26.2% compared to the same period in 2022, and operations measured in ASK (available seat-kilometers) increased by 29.6%.
